Experience

Booking.com Transport Ltd, Manchester, United Kingdom.

Software Engineer 2019-today

Work productively with the Product Managers to understand requirements and business needs around Data Tooling. Developed solutions using Node.JS, Scala, Rust and Java coupling the solution with the company standards at the time (e.g. Observability, Resilence). Continuous learning thanks to code review session and learning time.

TamTamy Reply, Milan, Italy

IT Consultant 2017-2019

I had mainly the role of Full Stack Developer building Web Apps with Angular framework - for the Front End - and the Spring framework - for the Back End, following the entire lifecycle of the software engineering - from requirements gathering with customers to the final delivery. Recently, thanks to a project I'm involved, I entered in the world of the Data Engineering.

Accenture, Milan, Italy
